

Acknowledgment of NSF Support and Disclaimer

Appropriate acknowledgment of NSF support and a disclaimer must appear in publications of any material (including World Wide Web sites, posters, technical reports, manuscripts), whether copyrighted or not, based on or developed with NSF-supported funds.

“This material is based upon work supported by the National Science Foundation under Grant No. 0436348.”

The NSF must also be orally acknowledged during all news media interviews, including popular media such as radio, television, and news magazines.

Except for articles or papers published in scientific, technical or professional journals, the following disclaimer must be included:

“Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.”

Logos

In addition to the above disclaimer, any public presentation (in class, at a conference, at the Truman Student Research Conference, etc.) must include the logos of Truman, the NSF, and the STEP program at the start and at the end of the presentation.

These and other logos are available on the U: drive for posters, papers, and presentations. Each image is available in a variety of formats. Contact the STEP Office if you have questions about logo use or have a special need regarding logo formatting.
